

Anderson Lloyd is a leading law firm specialising in areas of law central to those operating in the New Zealand tourism industry, with proven experience particularly in the areas of employment, health and safety, Resource Management Act, the conservation estate, property and commercial law.

The firm has offices in Auckland, Christchurch, Queenstown and Dunedin and won mid- sized law firm of the year at the NZ Law Awards consecutively for the past 4 years.

Anderson Lloyd gives specialist legal advice and representation to many of NZ's tourism and hospitality businesses large and small, throughout the country, and is proud to support one of NZ's core industries.

As a Discussing Tourism Event Supporter, Anderson Lloyd looks forward to further involvement in the tourism conversation with Queenstown Partner Maree Baker-Galloway contributing to the afternoon sessions on 'TOURISM – A VIEW FROM THE OUTSIDE'.
