

HOSPITALITY Training Trust

Hospitality Training Trust – 2017 Grant Application Information

Do you have a great training idea you would like to see adopted in the hospitality sector? Or an outstanding trainee who would benefit from specific training? Or a project related to hospitality training?

Then read on.

The Hospitality Training Trust (HTT) was set up to encourage and support training in the sector. Previous grants have included:

- Support for NZ Hospitality trainees to participate in World Skills Competition
- Training for completion of judging qualifications
- Masterclasses for secondary school hospitality teachers
- A video guide to train hospitality staff in allergy awareness
- Training for Holiday Park managers
- School holiday training programmes for cafe cooking and serving.

For 2017, the Trust has $120,000 available for distribution to associations, companies or individuals for projects or ideas that will further the aims and criteria of the Trust around building excellence across the hospitality sector.

If you have a great idea or project that fits these criteria, have a look at our website or email the Trust now. Applications close on 6 April 2017.

An application form for 2017 Hospitality Training Trust funding is attached to this leaflet or can be found at www.hospitalitytrainingtrust.org.nz or www.htt.org.nz
